ORIGINATION: January 30, 2019

EFFECTIVE:

REVIEWED: New

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

1.1 This policy is developed to ensure compliance with federal and state guidelines in order to maintain eligibility for participation in Federal Title IV funding. The policy's purpose is to ensure student consumer protection in marketing, recruiting, admissions, and financial aid process.

SECTION 2. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

2.1 This policy addresses the ethical practices in marketing, recruiting, admissions, and financial aid process. All college employees and/or related contractors participating in marketing, recruitment, admissions and financial aid are subject to this policy.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 None.

SECTION 4. POLICY

4.1 Southern West Virginia Community and Technical College will comply with the federal and state guidelines by treating students ethically, professionally, and respectfully in marketing, recruiting, admissions and financial aid process so that students can make an informed enrollment decision without being subjected to high pressure tactics from the College. This policy, and other policies related to consumer protection, will be accessible and transparent.

4.2 All College employees, who have responsibilities in recruitment and admissions of students, will have appropriate education, job titles, and training, overseen by the College, which includes enforcement of the ethical standards set forth in the College's manual, SAM-2000.1, Employee Handbook.

4.3 The College will not pressure a student to enroll by a specific deadline using a promise of cash or free goods or services outside of the regular process of scholarship monies, institutional discounting, fee waivers, financial aid or other assistance, nor will there be a promise that employment is being directly or indirectly offered or is more likely related to its education or provide any guarantees of employment related to that education.

- 4.4 Students will be given sufficient time, prior to enrolling, to review the institution's policies and procedures, to understand the amount of federal, state, and institutional financial aid the student is eligible to receive, and to learn how many credits, if any, will transfer and whether they will be applied to the major or general education requirements or the process and timeline for evaluation of those credits. The College will not induce or pressure students to enroll.
- 4.5 College employees responsible for recruiting and/or admissions may answer general questions about the student application process for admissions and financial aid, but in no case will the employee complete the application or apply the prospective student's signature to any documents.
- 4.6 All information provided to prospective students in the recruiting and admissions process will be accurate, complete, and up-to-date. This information will be freely shared with all prospective students, thus having no requirements that such student share any contact information with the College.
- 4.7 Any job placement, salary information or other student outcome data publicized as part of the recruiting process are based on all students in a cohort or class who completed the program; completing students are not excluded from the published data because they did not utilize the College's career, advising or other services; an institution will maintain back-up documentation related to any such publicized outcome data and will make that back-up data available to accreditors, the public, or governmental agency upon request. If the College publicizes for recruiting purposes, outcome data based on student survey or other partial information about a cohort or class of students, the College will indicate clearly wherever it publicizes the rate the number of students in the cohort or class and the number of students whose outcome data is included. If job placement or other related data are drawn from an external database, economic forecasting or other source, the College will indicate in conjunction with the publication of data its source and will direct students to the original source of the information where applicable (e.g., Department of Labor website).
- 4.8 The College's data privacy policy, SCP-7720, Security of Information, will be prominently posted on the College's website. A student's request to have their name removed from phone, email or other contact lists developed through the recruiting, lead, and/or admissions process will be promptly removed and maintained as outlined in the College's data privacy policy.
- 4.9 No student will be automatically registered for classes. All students have the right and responsibility to register for each academic term in which they are enrolled. Students will have the opportunity to cancel that registration before being assessed tuition and fees for that term, but this should be done prior to the beginning of classes.
- 4.10 Should the College require a student to sign an enrollment agreement, the enrollment agreement will be limited to basic information about a student's course of study, tuition and fees, and other related information and in no case will that agreement include any language limiting that student's ability to: file a complaint with an accrediting or state agency; take legal action in the event that any dispute resolution processes agreed to by the College and the students are unsuccessful in resolving the dispute to the satisfaction of the parties; or seek to discharge a student loan through remedies available to borrowers under state or federal law. Students will be provided sufficient time, as determined by the situation and any mandates in state law, to review any enrollment agreement and to consult with others as a part of that review process before being required to sign the document or lose an offer of admission and related financial assistance.
- 4.11 In addition to the College's policy related to return of Title IV funds, SCP-4356, Financial Aid Recipient-

Change in Enrollment Policy, the College has a refund policy, SCP-5050, Assessment, Payment, and Refund of Tuition and Fees, to assure that students receive a refund where appropriate if they withdraw from an academic term or from the College.
